

CLOTHING AFLAME, BOY'S LIFE SAVED

Three Men Go to Rescue of Theodore Spicer, of Alexandria.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., APRIL 11. His clothing catching fire from a bonfire in the yard of the old City Hotel yesterday evening, Theodore Spicer, the eight-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Spicer, was seriously burned about the face and body. The lad would have been burned to death but for the prompt action of Harry Ale, William McCaffery, Frank Twaddell, and Fred Dizonetti, who tore the burning clothing from his body. Spicer had built a fire in the yard of the building and decorating was being done around, when the burning came in contact with the fire. The boy's injuries, while painful, are not dangerous.

Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, held a special meeting at St. Mary's Hall last evening and decided to cancel the regular meeting next Wednesday evening and to hold a big meeting at the Lyceum Hall next Sunday afternoon, at which an address will be delivered by one of the priests conducting the mission at St. Mary's Church. The members of Fitzgerald Council extend a cordial invitation to their non-Catholic friends to attend the mission for non-Catholics in progress at St. Mary's Church.

Mrs. Henrietta Lyles, wife of Edgar Lyles, died at her home, 202 North Washington street, this morning. Mrs. Lyles was seventy years of age, and was the daughter of the late Columbus and Mary Butler. She is survived by her husband and a number of children, all grown. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

The remains of Dr. David M. Ogden, who died in Washington yesterday, will be interred at the funeral home of Charles Spaulding, 1215 K Street, N. W., at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Ogden is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Nellie Gregory, of this city.

Charles Spaulding died at his home in Alexandria county yesterday evening. He was sixty years of age, and is survived by his widow and several children. No arrangements have been made for his funeral.

The funeral of William H. May was held from his home, Cameron and St. Asaph streets, this afternoon and was attended by R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and Officers, Lodge, Knights of Pythias. The Rev. H. M. Carter of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Rev. O. C. Beall, of Del Ray, conducted the funeral services. The pallbearers were W. A. Smit, P. P. Gorman, S. H. Lunt, G. W. Boye, J. T. Meyers, and E. W. Armacost. Burial was in Bethel cemetery.

Justice Caton, in the police court, this morning held Samuel Marbury, negro, for the grand jury on the charge of shooting Alfred Lewis, negro, last Saturday night.

The funeral of Miss Eunice Barnum was held from her home near Lincoln this afternoon. Burial was in the family burial ground.

Capt. F. S. Hutton, U. S. A., and Major James E. King will this evening inspect Company G, First Virginia Regiment, at their armory in South Capitol street. The command will be under the command of Capt. F. L. Slaymaker.

A meeting of M. D. Corse Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, will be held at Lee Camp Hall, in Prince street, this evening.

A meeting of the general committee of the Firemen's Convention will be held at the hall of the Columbia Fire Engine Company this evening.

G. M. Jameson, of Manassas, Va., is visiting friends in this city.

The quarterly term of the corporation court opened at the court house in this city this morning, Judge L. C. Barley presiding.

POLICEMAN SUTTON SUMMONED TO TRIAL

Patrolman of Fifth Precinct Must Answer Charge of Conduct Unbecoming an Officer.

Patrolman Edward Sutton, of the Fifth precinct, will be cited to appear before the police trial board on a charge of conduct unbecoming an officer within the next few days. Formal charges against Sutton, who is still on duty, probably will be filed tomorrow.

Major Sylvester said this morning that a thorough investigation shows that Sutton's alleged misconduct consisted of standing inside a cell and talking with a prisoner.

Peerless Suction Cleaners

Keep the Family Healthy

You cannot broom and sweep and raise dust without breathing it, and with all your sweeping you cannot reach the dust in the cracks and crevices on moldings and plate rails. Dust carries disease germs. The use of the "PEERLESS" insures a clean bill of health in the home. It allows not an atom of dirt to escape into the atmosphere, draws the dust and dirt from everywhere by suction. No dust-caps need be worn, no furniture moved, no curtains thrown back. See the "PEERLESS" in work.

HOMES THREATENED BY FIRE IN WOODS

Stubborn Blaze Sweeps Through Trees Along Anacostia Road.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ANACOSTIA, D. C., APRIL 11. Four engine companies of the District Fire Department spent several hours yesterday evening fighting two stubborn fires in the woods along the Anacostia road adjacent to the Ridge road.

No. 10 Engine Company and No. 1 Chemical Company fought the first fire that was reported, which burned over several acres on the Scrags and Schaper estates. The second fire called out No. 15 Engine Company and No. 7 Truck Company, and the firemen were kept busy in the vicinity of the Ridge road. The old Naylor mansion was threatened. The blaze in some places reached the tops of the trees and even crossed the highway.

Bernard Naylor, a nineteen-year-old youth, whose home is at 1515 V street, Anacostia, was severely injured while playing baseball at Seventeenth street and Good Hope road last evening. Two amateur teams, made of young men living here, were playing a game and young Naylor was the pitcher. One of the batters, in striking at a ball pitched by Naylor, accidentally flung his bat which struck Naylor on the forehead knocking him unconscious. Naylor was reported to be much better this morning.

Electric light wires on Good Hope road have come into contact with the upper parts of the shade trees, causing them damage. The authorities at the District building have been notified.

A meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church has been called for Wednesday afternoon next at the residence of Mrs. Lloyd Biddle, 1233 Valley Place.

Mrs. I. A. Rows, the secretary of the Anacostia branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, has announced a meeting of the organization for Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Oren, 1901 Seventeenth street, on a variety of topics relative to temperance matters will be acted upon.

At the session of the Washington City Presbytery, which will open this evening in West Street Church, Georgetown, the Rev. George M. Cummings, the pastor of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, and Alexander Davidson, of the same church, will represent the local Presbyterians. The meeting will continue through tomorrow.

Anacostia Presbyterians have changed the hour of the meeting of their Christian Endeavor Society from 8:30 o'clock Sunday evenings to 7:30 o'clock p. m., and they have made the hour for holding Sunday evening services 8 o'clock, instead of 7:30 o'clock. This schedule will be in effect during the summer.

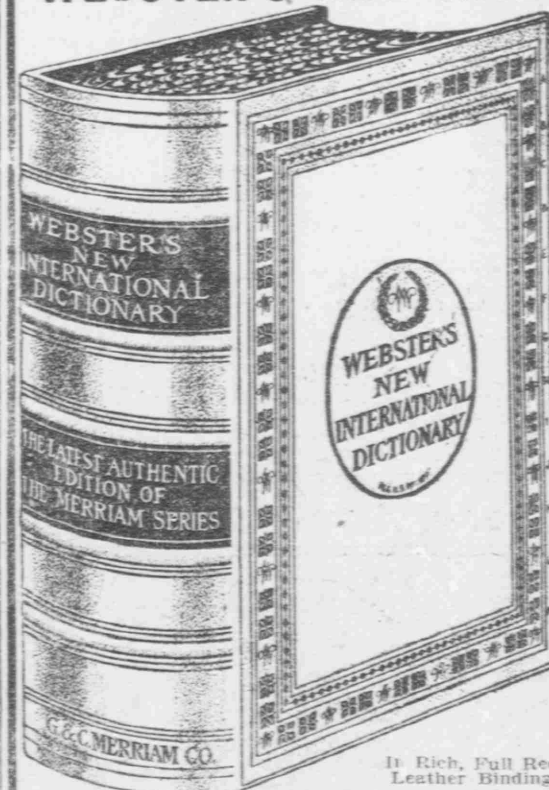

SOLOMONS' MEMORIAL

Jacob H. Schiff, Judge Samuel Greenbaum, Eugene S. Benjamin, Dr. H. Pereira Mendis, Louis S. Posner, and others, have been invited to be among the speakers at the memorial which will be held in New York city tomorrow evening in honor of A. S. Solomons, who died in this city last March. The memorial will be held at the Educational Alliance, East Broadway and Jefferson streets.

THREE MONTHS' MEN TO HOLD REUNION

Only a Hundred Now Living of 3,000 Who Volunteered.

The forty-ninth anniversary of the enlistment of the three-months' men, under the call of President Lincoln for 75,000 men, will be held this evening at St. Joseph's Hall, Fifth and G streets. The call was made in April, 1861, and yesterday was the forty-ninth anniversary of the day when the volunteer troops from the District of Columbia were mustered into the service of the United States.

The apportionment of the District, under the call, was 3,000 men, and they were the first volunteers sworn in for the defense of the Union. Of these 3,000 men there are only about 100 living. Three hundred of the 3,000 came from Georgetown, and out of these 300 there are nine living survivors, all of whom belong to the local association of volunteers of 1861.

A number of well-known volunteer officers have been invited to attend the celebration this evening. Col. John A. Joyce is expected to read an original poem for the occasion, and the staff officers of the Department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic, will assist.

TINDALL TO TALK ON GOV. SHEPHERD

Sidelights on Character of City Beautifier to Be Given.

Dr. William Tindall, secretary to the Board of Commissioners, will deliver an address on "Alexander Robey Shepherd" before the Columbia Historical Society at the Shoreham Hotel tomorrow night. Dr. Tindall had an opportunity of closely studying the man to whom Washington is so largely indebted for his beautiful appearance.

Interesting sidelights on the character of Governor Shepherd, not hitherto made public, will be disclosed by Dr. Tindall, who will discuss the leading events of his administration from the date of his appointment as governor, September 12, 1871, until the time of his retirement from public life. Dr. Tindall will review also the development of the plan of the city which began in 1868 under the administration of Mayor Sayles J. Bowen. After the formation of a territorial form of government the work of the Board of Public Works, of which Governor Shepherd was the first vice president.
